Dr. Pierre Casse (Belgian and Swiss citizenship) holds a Master's in Social Sciences in Sociology from Belgium's University of Liège and a PhD in Business Administration from the University of Lille in France. Pierre is a Professor of Leadership at Moscow School of Management SKOLKOVO and Leadership Chair at the IEDC-Bled School of Management in Slovenia.

He has been a Visiting Professor at IAE-University Aix-en-Provence in France and at the Kellogg School of Management in Chicago, USA. He held the Suez Chair of Leadership at the Solvay Business School (ULB-Brussels) from 2004 to 2006 and was an IMD Professor from 1986 to 1994. He is Dean Emeritus of the Berlin School of Creative Leadership and a former Fellow Associate at Templeton College (Oxford University), as well as CEO of the Business Innovation Network (BIN) and President of the Pierre Casse Foundation. He has published more than 12 books and 50 articles on leadership and negotiation. Pierre has worked as a consultant for many international organisations as well as an editor at AMBA (UK).

His key teaching area is leadership for a new world, with a focus on:

1. Leading yourself (Helping people identify and activate their leadership potential);
2. Leading a team (Revisiting team leadership considering the new requirements of the fast-changing world we live in);
3. Leading an organisation (Coping with new corporate issues and managing an organisation with uncertainty in mind).
