

Dr. Nikita Lychakov

Research Fellow

Nikita_Lychakov@skolkovo.ru

Economics, International Business

Dr Nikita Lychakov is a Research Fellow at the Center for Leadership Development of the SKOLKOVO School of Management. Nikita received his PhD in Finance from Queen's University Belfast in 2018. Before joining SKOLKOVO, he worked as a research fellow at the Higher School of Economics (Moscow).

His research interests include crisis management, economic and financial history. His works have been published in international scientific journals such as Explorations in Economic History. Nikita is part of a small circle of Russian-speaking researchers who actively publish articles on the economy of the Russian Empire in international journals.

As a member of the Center for Leadership Development at the SKOLKOVO School of Management, Nikita has co-authored two widely-disseminated reports about how Russian companies responded to the challenges they faced during the turbulent period between 2021 and 2023. He is also a regular contributor to SKOLKOVO's blogs on social media focusing on the latest practical findings on the topic of leadership.

Research Interests:

- crisis management
- economic and financial management
- leadership